

Unit 83

Both / both of, neither / neither of, either / either of a We use both, neither and either when we are talking about two things. You can use these words with a noun:

- Both restaurants are very good. (not 'the both restaurants')
- Neither restaurant is expensive.
- We can go to either restaurant. I don't mind. (either = one or the other, it doesn't matter which one)
- I didn't like either restaurant. (not the one or the other)

b You can also use both/neither/either with of .... When you use these words with of, you always need the/these/those/my/your/his etc. You cannot say 'both of restaurants'. You have to say 'both of the restaurants', 'both of these restaurants' etc.:

- Both of these restaurants are very good.

With both you can leave out of. So you can say:

both my parents    or    both of my parents

c After both of / neither of / either of you can also use us/you/them:

- Can either of you speak Spanish?
- I wanted Tom and Ann to come but neither of them wanted to.

You must say 'both of' before us/you/them:

- Both of us were very tired. (not 'Both us ...')

d After neither of ... you can use a singular or a plural verb:

- Neither of the children wants (or want) to go to bed.
- Neither of us is (or are) married.

e You can say both ... and ..., neither ... nor ... and either ... or .... Study these examples:

- Both Tom and Ann were late.
- They were both tired and hungry.
- Neither Tom nor Ann came to the party.
- He said he would contact me but he neither wrote nor phoned.
- I'm not sure where he is from. He's either Spanish or Italian.
- Either you apologise or I'll never speak to you again.

f You can also use both/neither/either alone:

- 'Is he British or American?' 'Neither. He's Australian'.
- 'Do you want tea or coffee?' 'Either. I don't mind.'
- I couldn't decide which one to choose. I liked both.

For I don't either and neither do I see Unit 51c.
