

Unit 29

May (have) and might (have)

a Study this example situation:

You are looking for Jack. Nobody knows for sure where he is but you get some suggestions:

He may be in his office. (= perhaps he is in his office)

He might be having lunch. (= perhaps he is having lunch)

Ask Ann. She might know. (= perhaps Ann knows)

We use may and might to say that something is possible. There is no important difference between may and might. You can say:

- He may be in his office. or He might be in his office.

The negative is may not and might not (or mightn't):

- Jack might not be in his office. (= perhaps he isn't in his office)
- I'm not sure whether I can lend you any money. I may not have enough.
(= perhaps I don't have enough)

Study the structure:

I/you/he (etc.)		may might		(not)		be in his office be having/waiting etc. know/have/do etc.
-----------------	--	----------------------------	--	-------	--	--

b To say what was possible in the past, we use may have (done) and might have (done):

- A: I wonder why Ann didn't answer the doorbell.
B: Well, I suppose she may have been in the bath. (= perhaps she was in the bath)
- A: Why didn't he say hello when he passed us in the street?
B: He might have been day-dreaming. (= perhaps he was day-dreaming)
- A: I can't find my bag anywhere.
B: You might have left it in the shop. (= perhaps you left it)
- A: I wonder why Ann didn't come to the meeting.
B: She might not have known about it. (= perhaps she didn't know)

Study the structure :

I/you/he (etc.)		may might		(not) have		been in the bath been day-dreaming/waiting etc. known/left/had etc.
-----------------	--	----------------------------	--	------------	--	--

c You can use could instead of may or might. But with could the possibility is smaller:

- 'Where's Jack?' 'I'm not sure. He could be in his office, I suppose, but he's not usually there at this time.'

For may and might see also Units 30 and 31.

b To say what was possible in the past, we use may have (done) and might
