

Unit 26

Can, could and be able to a We use can (do) to say that something is possible or that someone has the ability to do something. The negative is can't (cannot).

- You can see the sea from out bedroom window.
- Can you speak any foreign languages?
- I'm afraid I can't come to your party next Friday.

Be able to is possible instead of can, but can is more usual:

- Are you able to speak any foreign languages?

But can has only two forms: can (present) and could (past). So sometimes you have use be able to:

- I haven't been able to sleep recently. (can has no present perfect)
- Tom might not be able to come tomorrow. (can has no infinitive)

b Could and was able to Sometimes could is the past of can. We use could especially with these verbs:

see hear smell taste feel remember understand

- When we went into the house, we could smell burning.
- She spoke in a low voice but I could understand what she was saying.

We also use could to say that someone had the general ability to do something:

- My grandfather could speak five languages.
- When Tom was 16, he could run 100 metres in 11 seconds.

But if you mean that someone managed to do something in one particular situation, you have to use was/were able to (not could):

- The fire spread through the building very quickly but everyone was able (= managed) to escape. (not 'could escape')
- They didn't want to come with us at first but in the end we were able (= managed) to persuade them. (not 'could persuade')

Compare could and was able to in this example:

- Jack was an excellent tennis player. He could beat anybody. (= He had the ability to beat anybody.)
- But once he had a difficult game against Alf. Alf played very well but in the end Jack was able to beat him. (= He managed to beat him in this particular game.)

The negative couldn't is possible in all situations:

- My grandfather couldn't swim.
- We tried hard but we couldn't persuade them to come with us.

For can see also Unit 31. For could see also Units 27 and 31.

- She spoke in a low voice but I could understand what she was saying.
