

Unit 100

To + infinitive after adjectives

a Compare these two sentences:

Jim doesn't speak very clearly. || A It is difficult to understand him.
B He is difficult to understand.

Sentences A and B have the same meaning. But note that we say 'He is difficult to understand.' (not 'He is difficult to understand him.')

You can use the structure in sentence B after difficult/easy/impossible/hard and after a few other adjectives:

- Your writing is almost impossible to read. (not '... to read it')
(= It is almost impossible to read your writing.)
- Do you think this water is safe to drink? (not '... to drink it')
- Jill is very interesting to talk to. (not '... to talk to her')

You can also use this structure with an adjective + noun:

- This is a very difficult question to answer. (not '... to answer it')
- Jill is an interesting person to talk to.
- I enjoyed the football match. It was an exciting game to watch.

b We use to + infinitive after the first / the second / the third etc. and also after the next and the last:

- Who was the first man to reach the South Pole?
- If I have any more news, you'll be the first to know.
- The next train to arrive at platform 4 will be the 6.58 to Cardiff.
- Who was the last person to leave the building last night?

c You can use to + infinitive after a number of adjectives to say how someone feels about something. For example:

- I was sorry to hear that your father is ill.
- Was Tom surprised to see you when you visited him?
- I was delighted to get your letter last week.

Other adjectives you can use in this way include:

happy	pleased	disappointed	amazed
glad	sad	relieved	astonished

d Note the structure (it is) nice of someone to do something. This structure is possible after a number of adjectives including:

nice	mean	silly	polite	generous kind	stupid	clever	careless

- It was nice of you to take me to the station. Thank you very much.
- It was careless of Jack to leave the door unlocked when he went out.
- It's stupid of him to give up his job when he needs the money.
- It was very generous of Ann to lend us the money.

- Who was the first man to reach the South Pole?
- If I have any more news, you'll be the first to know.
