

Unit 85

No/none/any

No/any + -one/-body/-thing/-where

a No none no-one nobody nothing nowhere

We use these negative words especially at the beginning of a sentence or alone:

- No-one (or Nobody) came to visit me when I was in hospital.
- No system of government is perfect.
- 'Where are you going?' 'Nowhere. I'm staying here.'
- None of these books are mine.
- 'What did you do?' 'Nothing.'

You can also use these words in the middle or at the end of a sentence. But don't use 'not' with these words. They are already negative:

In the middle or at the end of a sentence, we more often use: not ... any/anyone/anybody/anything/anywhere:

- I didn't see anything. (= I saw nothing.)
- We haven't got any money. (= We've got no money.)
- The station isn't anywhere near here. (= ... is nowhere near here)
- She didn't tell anyone about her plans. (= She told no-one)

Where there is another negative word, you don't need 'not':

- Nobody tells me anything. (= people don't tell me anything)

b No and none

We use no with a noun. No = not a or not any:

- We had to walk because there was no bus. (= there wasn't a bus)
- I can't talk to you now. I have no time. (= I haven't any time)
- There were no shops open. (= there weren't any shops)

We use none alone (without a noun):

- 'How much money have you got?' 'None.'

Or we use none of:

none of these shops none of my money none of it/us/you/them

After none of + a plural word ('none of the girls / none of them' etc.), you can use a singular or a plural verb. A plural verb is more usual:

- None of the people I met were English.

c After no-one/nobody we often say they/them/their:

- Nobody phoned, did they? (= did he or she)
- No-one in the class did their homework. (= his or her homework)

d You can use any/no with comparatives (any better / no bigger etc.):

- Do you feel any better today? (= Do you feel better at all? - said to someone who felt ill yesterday)
- We've waited long enough. I'm not waiting any longer. (= not even a minute longer)
- I expected your house to be very big but it's no bigger than mine. (= not even a little bigger)

For any see also Unit 84.

- 'How much money have you got?' 'None.'
