

Unit 40

1 Tom is going for a long walk in the country. He has decided to take these things with him: his camera, some chocolate, an umbrella, a towel, a map some lemonade. He is taking these things because:

- |   |                            |
|---|----------------------------|
| perhaps he'll need a drink                  | perhaps he'll lose his way |
| perhaps he'll want to have a swim           | perhaps will rain          |
| perhaps he'll want to take some photographs | perhaps he'll get hungry   |

Now write sentences with in case saying why Tom has decided to take these things.

Example: He's going to take his camera in case he wants to take some photographs.

- 1 He's going to take some chocolate in case .....
- 2 He's going to take .....
- 3 .....
- 4 .....
- 5 .....

2 In this exercise you have to write sentences with in case.

Example: It was possible that John would phone. So I didn't go out. I didn't go out in case John phoned.

- 1 It was possible that he would come to London one day. So I gave him my address. I gave him my address in case .....
- 2 It was possible that I wouldn't see her again. So I said goodbye. I said .....
- 3 It was possible that her parents were worried about her. So she phoned them. She .....
- 4 It was possible that I would forget the name of the street. So I wrote it down. ....
- 5 It was possible that they hadn't received my first letter. So I wrote them a second letter. ....
- .....
- .....

3 This time you have to put in case or if in these sentences.

Examples: John might phone tonight. I don't want to go out in case he phones.
Could you give this book to Tom if you see him?

- 1 I hope you'll come to London sometime ..... you come, you must visit us.
  - 2 I've just painted the door. I'll put a Wet Paint notice next to it ..... someone doesn't realise the paint is still wet.
  - 3 We have fitted a burglar alarm to the house ..... somebody tries to break in.
  - 4 The alarm will ring ..... somebody tries to break into the house.
  - 5 Write your name and address on your bag ..... you lose it.
  - 6 Go to the lost property office ..... you lose your bag.
  - 7 I was advised to arrange insurance ..... I needed medical treatment while I was on holiday abroad.
- 1 It was possible that he would come to London one day. So I gave him my address. I gave him my address in case .....
